A Note To Our Loyal Customers...

In order to maintain the safest (socially distanced) environment possible in our kitchens, we have temporarily trimmed our menu down to these most popular items. It will enable us to serve you in a timely manner, while also protecting our staff members, their families, and the community by social distancing in our kitchens. After we settle into these changes, we look forward to offering some of our other popular menu items on a weekly basis.

We thank you for your understanding and continued patronage during this difficult time!
